Diagnosis: Intelligent haunt

House History

- Built in 1898 by a man named Cyrus Faulkner
 - Cyrus had a wife and one son
 - Died before he could see the house completed
- House occupied until 1927 and then turned into a funeral home
- 1927-38 operating as a funeral home
- Sold in 1938 to Minnicks—converted from funeral home to residence
- Mid-1900s, purchased by the Nash family who sold it to Grahams
- Cyrus Faulkner's wife was named Ella. She is the female that the family feels is haunting the house due to all of the full body sightings of her.

Personal Experiences from Homeowners

- First floor parlor energy surges come and go
 - Mixture of old and new electric throughout the house
 - Throbbing in basement; random high K-2 readings in the basement
- Sitting in upstairs hallway, Jan sees an old woman wearing a white sleeping gown
- Ella experienced in the bedroom by Jan—backed up by Rob and Bethany (particularly the bed)
- Robert (crazy drunk guy) sees Ella in attic from the street
 - Rob felt surrounded in the attic
 - Nick felt a child presence
 - Bethany felt a presence
- Homeowners and everyone in team felt activity in the second floor hallway
- Family experiences 3 knocks in the hallway, also heard by our team
- Woman seen wearing a white dress in attic

Team Experiences

- Sweep
 - Any vehicle that drives by outside creates a vibrating noise inside. The larger the vehicle, the louder the sound
- Intuitive sweep—Similar reactions to certain areas; same hot spots
- Nick and Bethany saw light flashes in the attic that could not be debunked

- K-2 hit hovering near stairwell consistently, raised above ground as if floating, 5-6 feet in height, 2 feet off the ground
- Nick saw shadow person in the parlor stairwell
- Nick debunked light anomaly in the pink room
- Team experienced attic stairway door opened and light turned on its own within a half-hour
- Bethany and Nick experienced flashes of light and an increasing stream of light from the grey room
- Nick's fully charged camera shuts off after 10-15 minutes of run time outside the bedroom.
- Personal experience: Rob saw a shadow figure in the basement, undocumented on film or video

EVP Evidence with Personal Experiences

- BASEMENT
 - New furnace and wiring in basement, but owner confirmed some old wiring running through the walls
 - Pulsating K-2 meter around the furnace and new electric. Pulsating continues around the furnace and back section of the basement. The average reading on the walk-through sweep performed by Licia was between 5-6. The highest reading was 9. The majority of the readings were much higher (around 30), a potential EMF "fear cage" with the furnace, electrical system, and correctly wired exposed wiring.
- FIRST FLOOR PARLOR AND STAIRWELL
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 1:19) Nick and Bethany
 - K-2 hit in the stairwell
 - Nick says, "I'll go upstairs."
 - Male voice replies, "I'll show the way."
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 3:19) clanking on recorder
 - Debunked: Recorder contact with hard surface; happened numerous times
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 3:23) Nick and Bethany
 - Breathing above conversation
 - Possibly says "follow"
 - Heavy K-2 hit by the downstairs banister in the shape of a person floating
 - Camera shuts off by itself
 - Vibrational sound, followed by male voice, "Follow it...upstairs"
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 5:09) Nick
 - Nick asks for a response, followed by clicking on the recorder,
 - Footsteps also caught on all recorders at the same time
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 7:01) Loud clanking, metal on metal

- (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 7:59) Female humming and male voice
 - 5 seconds after, Nick sees shadow in the stairwell (not reflecting car lights—cars were coming both directions)
 - 5 seconds after the shadow, male voice, “In the hall.”
- (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 51:25)
 - Man’s voice whispers above everyone—cannot make out what he is saying
- SECOND FLOOR PARLOR
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 9:03) Male moan/breathing
 - Right after Nick’s sighting of a shadow person; everyone moves to the second floor
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 9:33) Bethany and Nick
 - Bethany and Nick talking in the parlor, over the voices you hear a faint male voice saying “Stop” or “Just Stop.”
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 38:17) Bethany and Licia
 - Door clicks and door knob turns
 - Camera shuts off
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 46:00)
 - Nick’s camera drained after a 10-15 min. run time after a two-hour charge
 - 40 minutes later, everyone is talking, male voice making noises above us but no words are easily identifiable
 - (Olympus Recorder, File C, Recording 1, 3:45)
 - Bethany witnessed spark of light in 2nd floor parlor in Ella’s “spot” in the hallway.
 - (Olympus Recorder, File C, Recording 1, 5:50)
 - Rob sees blackness in the corner in the entryway, confirmed by Nick and Bethany
 - (Olympus Recorder, File C, Recording 1, 7:13)
 - Inaudible whistle/bell sound appears on recorder
 - (Olympus Recorder, File C, Recording 1, 14:57)
 - Nick’s walkie-talkie goes off on its own
 - Knock comes from Ella’s spot
 - Rob hears rustling on the parabolic mic (not picked up on the recorder)
 - (Olympus Recorder, File C, Recording 1, 16:47-on)
 - Several see a shadow figure by the hallway near the railing
 - Bethany sees the shadow retreat into Ella’s spot
 - At the same time Nick feels a cold spot—Nick’s body is 75 degrees and the surrounding air drops to 53 degrees

- About 20 minutes later we took temp readings on the first floor our temperature readings averaged 62 degrees...so this is significantly colder
 - Everyone in the room gets cold
 - Bethany and Rob see eyes and a head-shaped orb on the stairs
 - Those closest to the stairs (Bethany, Nick, and Rob) get colder
 - Temperature drops to 52 degrees
 - Both Nick's and Licia's hands get cold
 - Unexplainable interference on the DVR
 - Nick and Bethany also hear knocking at the same time
 - Rob's walkie-talkie goes off by itself at the same time
 - There is no way to debunk the walkie-talkie malfunction: charged, no frequency issues, tech interference, all within range, etc.
 - Nick's recorder? Bethany asks, "Is that you? Can you make another noise?": male voice, "I'm in here."
- SECOND FLOOR (Dan and Jan's Bedroom)
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 8:38) Licia alone
 - Licia breathing
 - Above her breathing and conversation in the hallway there is a male voice
 - Unclear, possibly "Who wants me?" followed by "It's in the hall"
 - (Olympus Recorder, File A, Recording 1, 8:43) Male moaning
 - Five seconds later Nick sees a shadow person in the downstairs parlor block the light from the window
 - 15 seconds after previous EVP, "There's something in the hall."
- THIRD FLOOR ATTIC (Grey Room)
 - During EVP session, Nick and Bethany experienced flashes of light (consistently white light) in the corner of the room that could not be debunked or explained
 - Nick and Bethany are sitting on the couch and both feel a thud between them, which picked up on the pink recorder. Neither of them shifted their seating positions before hearing the sound.
 - Took the camera up and all power was shut off, came back up one hour later and the light was on and door was open

Personal Experiences

- BASEMENT
 - Rob sees a shadow in the basement that appeared to be coming toward he and Licia, moving in front of some boxes, blocking the boxes. Not taped or caught on digital.
